

Nomination Package:

Distinguished Teaching Award

AWARD

Exemplary teaching is a core element of KPU and, accordingly, KPU recognizes and celebrates exceptional examples of teaching. This award is intended to recognize remarkable teaching as demonstrated by activities such as the development of new courses and curricula, contributions to the scholarship of teaching, development of effective teaching methods, enrichment of the learning environment at KPU, and contributions that improve the teaching of colleagues.

Nominations for the Award can be made by any faculty, staff member or student by October 1 of each year. Written permission of the nominee is required.

The Distinguished Teaching Award is awarded in two categories: 1) full-time teaching and 2) part-time teaching. There will be one award per year.

ELIGIBILITY

Employees who have worked at KPU for a minimum of five years are eligible for nomination. This may include faculty, staff or administrators that instruct.

SELECTION CRITERIA

There are no fixed criteria for selection of the Award, although generally nominees will have:

1. Contributed to the learning environment of their students, their departments, and their disciplines (e.g., by showing a consistent commitment to developing methodologies, materials, and processes which have contributed to student success).
2. A demonstrated interest in teaching and pedagogy.
3. Been a role model for colleagues and students.
4. Had a recognized and substantial impact on students, colleagues, and the institution (e.g., letters of support).

NOMINATION PROCESS

1. Nominees are required to complete the nomination form with all of the required information.
2. Nominations are to be in the form of the dossier that includes the identified material as described below.

Nomination Form

Nominations must include a completed Distinguished Teaching Award Nomination Form. It is in the best interest of the nominator to supply as much information as is relevant and available. This form must include a statement regarding why the nominee is worthy of the distinguished teaching award (not to exceed 500 words).

Distinguished Teaching Award: Nomination Form

Nomination Dossier

The nomination dossier includes evidence that demonstrates the nominee's exemplary contributions to teaching and learning at Kwantlen Polytechnic University. Nomination dossiers are expected to be 20 pages, but must not exceed 30 pages, including all appendices and supplementary material. Dossiers longer than thirty pages are ineligible and will be returned unread. It is expected that the font of submissions will be no less than eleven. Incomplete dossiers will be returned. The following elements should be included in a complete nomination dossier.

1. Completed Nomination Form.
2. A current curriculum vitae (no longer than five pages).
3. A statement of teaching philosophy submitted by the nominee (not to exceed 500 words).
4. Letters of support from faculty, staff or students that reflect the nominee's teaching excellence (no more than five, two of which are written by former or current students of the Nominee).
5. Evidence of teaching excellence. Materials may include (but are not limited to):
 - a minimum of two teaching evaluations from KPU
 - exemplary course materials that demonstrate selection criteria
 - notes of recognition and thanks for teaching
6. Record of professional and scholarly activity.
7. Demonstrated evidence of the scholarship of teaching and learning. Materials may include (but are not limited to):
 - external recognition of teaching excellence
 - exhibits of work
8. Written permission of the nominee.

Please note: All information submitted on behalf of the nominee will be kept confidential.

Collection Notice:

The Senate Office is collecting personal information on this nomination form pursuant to 26(c) of British Columbia's Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act ("the Act") for the purpose of exercising the powers of Senate under section 37(1) of the University Act to facilitate nominations for awards. Personal information can be collected indirectly through the nomination process under 27(1)(c) of the Act, but the personal information provided on this form must be limited to what is specifically requested.
